

I'd like to thank the following for many code reviews resulting in overall better code quality and my deeper understanding of the GBA architecture:

César Parent - Idea for a collision detection;

Calum Leask - help with generating random numbers;

Adam Sampson - fixing the collision detection of player's movement.